CREW SCRIPT - THE ASK

Whoever ran the job asks, in person, before the van doors close. Don't skip it. Don't apologize for it.

SAY THIS, WORD FOR WORD IF YOU WANT

"Before we go, one favor. Reviews are how people find us instead of the $99 guys. If you were happy with today, would you scan this and give us a Google review? Takes 30 seconds, and you can do it right now while we load up."

Then hand them the card and stand there. Most people do it on the spot if you wait. If they say they'll do it later, say "I'll text you the link so it's easy," and send the text below before you pull out of the driveway.

TEXT TEMPLATE (send from the crew phone)

Hi [name], this is [tech] with Carolina Quality Air. Thanks for having us out today. If you have 30 seconds, here's the link to leave us a Google review, it really helps a small family company:

RULES

- Ask every job, residential and commercial. The property manager can review too.
- Ask the person who was happiest. If the wife was thrilled and the husband was on the phone, ask the wife.
- Never ask for five stars. Ask for a review. Google penalizes review-gating, and it reads as begging.
- Photos in the review help ranking. If they're holding the phone, say "feel free to add the before and after pic we sent you."
- Bounty: $[___] per review that names the tech. Jeff sets the number. Tracked off the Google dashboard weekly.
- Office replies to every review within 48 hours, good or bad. Replies count for ranking too.

WHERE CQA STANDS TODAY (Aug 29, 2026)

Google shows Carolina Quality Air (Winterville) at 4.9 stars on 29 reviews. Triangle competitors sit at 200 to 3,100. The score is great; the count is the problem. A crew that asks every job at CQA's volume adds 10 to 20 reviews a month, which puts CQA past 100 by spring and changes how every mailer, hanger, and ad converts.

PHONE CARD - WHOEVER ANSWERS 919-907-9742 / 252-321-7447

Tape it next to the phone. Three things to know, one thing to ask.

THE MAILER OFFER

Free dryer vent inspection with any duct cleaning. If they mention a postcard, a card, or the free dryer vent thing, that's it. Honor it, note it.

THE DOOR HANGER OFFER

Same offer. Hangers are on doors in Willow Spring and Fuquay-Varina. Same handling.

WHAT WE DON'T DO

No $99 specials. If they ask why we're more than the coupon guys: we quote the whole job up front, do it once, and send before and after photos. Offer the free inspection and quote.

THE ONE QUESTION, EVERY CALL

"How did you hear about us?" Write the answer on the lead sheet: postcard / door hanger / Google / referral (who) / drove by the van / other. This is how we know what to spend money on.

SCHEDULING NUDGE (PERRY'S LINE)

Weekdays. Weekends run time and a half, and customers steer themselves once they hear it.

REVIEWS

If a caller is a past customer and happy, ask if they'd leave a Google review, and text them the link on the review card.
